ARK
1938

Dear Roomie —

This is quite a special occasion to get to write in someone's book who means so much to me. Every little thing you have done and said have seemed so sincere and from your heart. You'll never know what it has meant to me to have someone so beautiful and thoughtful as you are to live with. Never a moment have I tired of your sweet smile — (even though I may not have been the one who prompted it).

Remember our excellent housekeeping, our hungry moments with an exhausted allowance, exams, the good orchestras — walks to-gether + my visit to your home.

Please remember one who loves u always. Jackie

Foreword

When your fingers shall wander idly over the keys of the crimson twilight of your life, and the happy, joyous memories and friendships of college days have become a harmonious echo, may this book be a chord again which will vibrate in your thoughts and recall the golden symphony of Central College stored up in your heart.

Dedication ●

To the memory of Berniece Carl Castleberry whose life, as sweet and harmonious as beautiful music, linked all whom she loved into one perfect peace; and whose presence trembled into silence as that one lost chord divine, this volume of the 1938 Ark is dedicated.

Last nite of School
on your bed -

Dearest Martha,

It gives me a great pleasure to write in your book. I just can't say all the nice things about you that I would like to.

We have all been so happy since you moved up here with us. Just sorry it didn't happen sooner -

You surely have been patient and sweet about our slovenly housekeeping.
We love you for it, too.

Martha, I never will forget the weekend you stayed up here. Remember Jack's + Sails leaving for the Preview + you got up and ran out in the hall wondering what was happening. I can just see you standing there in those "breezies"

Now, do be good to Harrison and treat him right. Think of me sometimes and play the "New Song of Marines."

Stay as sweet and pretty as you are now and everyone will love you as we do -

oodles of love and
good wishes,

Jan,
